IN: Bulletin 1 – The AQUA-Trial

Welcome to the first issue of our new IN: Bulletin.

The IN Bulletin provides an opportunity to share journeys in public involvement. For public members and researchers or staff to show what is really needed in terms of support and resource alongside the impacts for all parties. Future IN bulletins will showcase public reviewers, researchers working in challenging areas, service users who have travelled to become service user researchers.

We hope you will enjoy hearing personal accounts of public involvement, the differences made and if you have a journey to share please contact us.
